

Breastfeeding Interview

The Breastfeeding Panel must be completed at appropriate times (certifications and midcertifications) as part of a comprehensive assessment. Breastfeeding interviews and breastfeeding panel should be updated at all WIC contacts to provide anticipatory guidance and to collect and document relevant information. The interview should incorporate an interactive style (VENA) that promotes a participant-centered and health outcome-based approach.