

Medicaid

- I. In situations where the individual is eligible for both WIC and Medicaid benefits, Medicaid is the primary payor of prescribed formula/medical foods. The formula or medical food is provided by a Medicaid enrolled medical supply company, as long as the member meets policy criteria and the nutritional service is a covered benefit. In all other circumstances, WIC is the primary payor and provider.