

Tailoring Food Packages

- I. The Utah WIC program will allow individual food package tailoring to meet the nutritional needs of each WIC participant, as determined by the Value Enhanced Nutrition Assessment (VENA) process. In addition, adjustments can be made to the WIC foods for administrative convenience and to control costs. Such adjustments may involve packaging methods, container sizes, brands, types, and physical forms of WIC foods.