

Time Studies

- I. All staff are required to ensure that appropriate billing codes are used to account for all working time. Timesheets must be updated daily. If staff work for other health department programs, it is required that time sheets reflect such.

- II. Time Studies will be performed during financial audits of local health departments.